

News from University of Missouri Extension – Adair County

2009 Missouri Livestock Symposium Classic Tractor Contest Entries Due November 2

Entry forms for the 2009 Missouri Livestock Symposium Classic Tractor Contest are due November 2, according to Garry L Mathes, chair of the Symposium planning committee.

The classic tractor contest is co-sponsored by the Missouri Livestock Symposium and KTVO. The winning five tractors will be on display at the 2009 Missouri Livestock Symposium on December 4 & 5 at the Kirksville Middle School, 1515 South Cottage Grove, Kirksville, MO.

Entry information may be found at <http://www.missourilivestock.com> or by calling 660-665-9866 or 660-341-6625. Or, for needed information you can email Bruce Lane at lanen@missouri.edu and put Classic Tractors in the subject line.

The top 10 tractors will be featured on KTVO's morning newscast from November 16-20 during the Good Morning Heartland segment from 6 - 7 a.m. The public can then vote online for their favorite tractor from 8 a.m. on November 23 to 5 p.m. November 27, with the top 5 vote getters displaying their tractors at the Missouri Livestock Symposium where the 2009 top tractor will be selected.

The top 5 tractors will be recognized on Friday evening, December 4, in an awards ceremony. The contest is open to residents of the following counties: Adair, Clark, Knox, Lewis, Linn, Macon, Putnam, Sullivan, Schuyler, Scotland, and Shelby (in Missouri) and Appanoose, Davis, Monroe, and Wapello (in Iowa).

Classic Tractor Contest details or additional information about the Missouri Livestock Symposium can be found at <http://www.missourilivestock.com/> or <http://www.heartlandconnection.com/>.

There is no cost to enter your classic tractor and more than one tractor can be entered if desired. Equal opportunity/ADA institution.